

The Stockholm Register Summit

- learnings on register-based research in an interdisciplinary context

Date: 2014-12-18 | 13.00–20.30

Place: Aula Medica, Karolinska Institutet, Nobels väg 6

Arranged by SINGS (Swedish INterdisciplinary Graduate School in Register-Based Research) within SIMSAM (Swedish Initiative for Research on Microdata in the Social And Medical Sciences) - supported by the Swedish Research Council.

13.00 Roundtables and mini-seminars

15.30 Talks

Karen Haandrikman, Associate Professor of Sociology, Stockholm University

- Residential segregation in five European countries - a project using register data

Joakim Palme, Professor of Political Science, Uppsala University

- Welfare state institutions and register based data

Ole Frøbert, Professor of Cardiology, Örebro University

- Register-based randomized trials: a disruptive technology

Jens Flensted Lassen, Associate Professor, Cardiologist, Århus University

- Register-based randomized clinical trials (SORT-OUT)

Miguel Hernán, Professor of Epidemiology, Harvard School of Public Health

- With Big Data Comes Big Responsibility: How to use healthcare databases to emulate randomized trials when true randomized trials are not feasible

18.00 Panel discussion

19.00 Buffet, mingle, networking and music

For more information, please contact anita.berglund@ki.se.

Registration will open soon. A detailed programme will be found at www.simsam.nu.

No registration fees or other costs. Welcome!

Karolinska
Institutet